Civil Action No. 11-CV-4948-LTS-HBP (S.D.N.Y.)NOT ENDORSED

Dear Judge Swain:

We represent the AT&T Defendants in the above-referenced matter. We write with consent of all parties, and further to Your Honor's request at the December 10, 2012 Markman hearing regarding scheduling issues.

First, the parties agree to submit on or before December 20, 2012 a joint post-hearing statement directed to whether the parties have been able to reach agreement regarding the meaning of any of the disputed claim terms (and if so, what those agreements are); and separate supplemental briefs (one for Plaintiff and one for all Defendants) of 20 pages or less regarding the parties' claim construction disputes.

Second, the parties respectfully request that the Court amend the current scheduling order as follows:

Event	Currently Scheduled Date	Proposed New Date
Dispositive Motion Deadline	January 4, 2012	Thirty (30) days following the close of expert discovery (expert discovery is triggered off of the Court's Markman ruling, as noted below)
Final Pretrial Conference	April 5, 2013	Three (3) months following the dispositive motions deadline (on a date convenient to the Court)

The due dates regarding expert discovery outlined in Magistrate Judge Fox's June 18, 2012 Order (reproduced below) do not need to be amended:

Opening expert witness disclosures described in Rule 26(a)(2) will be due 30 days after issuance of the Court's Markman ruling. Rebuttal disclosures must be made no later than 45 days after opening disclosures. All expert witness discovery must be completed no later than 45 days after rebuttal disclosures are made.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert L. Maier

Attorney for AT&T Defendants

cc: Counsel of Record (by e-mail)

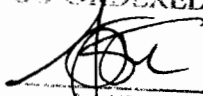

The requests are granted. A specific final pretrial conference date will be set in connection with the issuance of the Markman rulings.

SO ORDERED.
